

Together we can and do make a difference.

St. Paul's-Lakeview and the Episcopal Diocese of LA have teamed with The Red Thread Promise, a 501(c)(3) charitable organization founded by Kathy Korge Albergate, wife of Scott P. Albergate, Rector of St. Paul's, to help rebuild St. Vincent's for Handicapped Children School and Clinic in Port-au-Prince, Haiti.

Introducing Camp Jake Richard, the first summer camp for St. Vincent's Center for Handicapped Children in Port-au-Prince, Haiti. For the precious orphans of St. Vincent's, Camp Jake Richard will turn a long, hot summer with no family, no school, and no respite from cultural ridicule into a summer to remember.

Fund the Fun!